

PHOTOGRAPHY 101

With today's technology and advancements in the world of photography, almost everyone can enjoy the excitement of capturing a moment of time that will never come again. RMD Gallery & Framing Studio is pleased to announce the development of the "photography 101" class to help people like you develop their skills.

The photographers at RMD Gallery & Framing Studio have for a long time had the privilege of sharing their art and the beauty of nature that is all around us. If you enjoy taking pictures and want to learn more about the art, then this class is for you. No experience necessary. All that is required is an open mind and a camera of any kind.

Classes are kept small to ensure that everyone has the chance to enjoy the class.

With photography, tenderness and passion can last forever.

WHAT WILL BE COVERED

The class will cover the following:

How to take better pictures: Simple basic rules to follow that will help you get better shots.

Photography terminology and what it all means: Not just the terms, but also how they relate to you and your camera.

THE 411 OF PHOTOGRAPHY 101

The class will begin on Friday night at 6:00pm and last around an hour and a half. During this time of the class we will cover the handout, work with your camera in a controlled environment, give you a chance to shoot in the studio, and learn the ins and outs of your camera.

On Saturday we will meet at the Gallery and leave for a "on location" shoot. We will take a road trip to the Botanical Gardens in St. Louis or to the Farm just northwest of Springfield. While on location, you will have five items that you will need to capture that will be shared with everyone in the class. We will take time to critique and review images from everyone in the class.

An image is just an image unless it expresses the heart of the artist

HOW MUCH WILL IT COST?

The cost for the class is $65.00 per person and includes all handouts and classroom instruction. While on location, a central spot will be established and help will be available as needed at this location. This fee is subject to change based on cost of travel.

All food, admission and entry fees are the responsibility of the participants of the class.

Travel will be provided, and we will all travel as a group. Persons under 18 years of age will need to be accompanied by an adult.
